

Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR)

Discussion Group

Terms of Reference

About the Terms of Reference

This is a document that explains what a discussion group is.

It explains things like:

- Who is in the group
- What the group is for
- What the group does together

It helps everyone who is in the group understand what to expect about being involved.

Goal of the Group

The Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) discussion group was created to give members a place to connect and learn together.

Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) includes some of the big ideas and rights that people have around sexuality and having children.

Some examples might be:

- the right to choose to have children or not to have children

- the right to make decisions about your own body
- the right to have information about your body, including your sexual health
- the right to have access to sexual and reproductive health care
- the right to be safe from sexual violence or other violence because of your gender or sexuality

The goal of this discussion group is to:

- bring together members who are interested in Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR)
- create a space where members can share the work they are doing about Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) with others
- bring together members to have discussions about what good work on Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) looks like

Work of the Group

The discussion group comes together through online meetings.

The discussion group has at least 2 online meetings per year.

At each meeting:

- 1-3 members will present on their work about Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR)
- Members will have small group discussions using discussion questions about Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR)

The discussion group does not do other work together outside of their meetings, but they might also have discussions over their email group.

Members of the Group

Anyone who is a member of Inclusion International can be part of the discussion group.

The discussion group is not open to people outside of the network. This is a space only for members to talk to each other about Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR).

Members and presenters of discussion groups are not paid to participate. Everyone volunteers their time to be part of the group.

Group Leadership

Two or three members will help to coordinate the discussion group.

These members will be called Chairs.

Co-Chairs might do tasks like:

- Helping prepare the topic list for the meetings for the year
- Help identify members to present to the group
- Leading meetings of the group

Any member of the group can apply to be a Co-Chair of the group.

Co-Chairs will be recommended by the group's staff contact and will be approved by the Officers.

The Officers may also recommend that a specific group member applies to be Co-Chair.

How to Join the Group

At the start of each year, Inclusion International will invite members to join the discussion group.

Members can also join at any point during the year.

To join the group, members can sign up for the email list at this link.

Make sure that you list what organisation you come from or that you are an individual member in the comment box when you sign up - this will help us make sure that you are approved to join the group quickly!

Contact

Each discussion group has a member of the Inclusion International staff team that supports the group.

Ailis supports the work of the Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) discussion group.

For any questions about this discussion group or how to join, you can contact Ailis at ailis.hardy@inclusion-international.org.